LOYALIST GROUP'S REVENUES IN 2011 DOUBLE WITH NEW $600K CONTRACT WITH HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT SOUTH KOREA

Toronto, Ontario - June 16th 2011 – Loyalist Group Limited ("Loyalist" or the "Corporation") (TSX Venture Exchange: LOY), announced today that it has received a third signed contract from Human Resources Development South Korea (HRDSK), a ministry of the South Korean government; this time for the enrolment of 70 students whose expenses will be paid under the contract for the 2011/2012 academic term. This contract will add approximately $600 thousand to the revenues in addition to the current gross revenues of $700 thousand already under contract from HRDSK (as was previously announced on April 4, 2011 with respect to the enrolment of 80 students).

So far for 2011 Loyalist Group, through its operating unit McKinsey Education Group has been approved to welcome at least 285 students, versus 150 students under the same program in 2010. As a result, total revenues solely from HRDSK are expected to double with an increase by approximately 100% in 2011 over 2010.

"We are very pleased that HRDSK has further endorsed our curriculum by expanding enrolment by 90% over last year. This demonstration of added confidence in our education programs is extremely gratifying for our Corporation, our teachers, graduates and students." commented Mr. Andrew Ryu, CEO.
